Course Format and Requirements:

This course includes lectures, discussions and in-class discussions. You are responsible for all material and information from class. Attendance is required.

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend class on a regular basis. Attendance will be taken throughout the semester. While attendance is not directly calculated into the student's course grade, it will be a factor in determining participation grades. After a student's 4th absence, each unexcused absences will result in an automatic drop in grade. With each unexcused absence your final letter grade will be dropped ½ a grade – NO EXCEPTIONS (e.g.: A to A-).

Course Assignments:

Homework: Homework exercises should be done by the next class after they are assigned. It's important to finish all assigned homework because some of the questions on exams and quizzes will be based on homework exercises.
Quizzes: There will be 6 quizzes administered through the whole semester and the lowest scores will be dropped. Quizzes will always be completed in the first ten minutes of class. Quizzes will tend to cover topics covered in the lecture as well as topics covered in the homework. There will be no make-up quizzes.
Four Page Paper: Paper should be double spaced, in 12-point Times New Roman font, with 1” margins all around. Place your name, assignment title, and date in the top right corner of the first page. Detailed topics for paper will be discussed in class.
Presentation: Students will form small groups to present course materials. The presentation will take half of the class time and presenters need to prepare a handout (outline for the presentation) for the whole class. Each team will give a 10-minute presentation on any topic, as long as it is educational and relevant to one of the themes covered in class the week before, subject to the instructor's approval. Presentations must not include offensive material and should not be similar to other presentations on that theme (on a first-come first served basis).
Exams: All the exams in this class will be based on the following format: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Short answer questions: You will be asked questions pertaining to subjects, issues and changes in art derived from readings on handouts.2) Multiple choices3) Short essay question: You will be asked to write an essay pertaining to a specific question. 2 midterm exams This course will have 2 closed-book mid-term exams. Each exam will cover course materials taught until the day before the exam. Each exam is not cumulative. Each exam is worth 20% of the final grade. Both midterms will be taken in-class using the first 60-75 min of lecture time and rest lecture time will be used for new lectures.

Final exam

A three-hour, closed-book final exam will be taken at the end of the session. The final exam is cumulative, based on contents taught in the whole semester. The final exam is worth 25% of the final grade. Note that the final will not be taken during the normal class times. Exact time and location for final will be announced in the last week of sessions.

Academic Integrity:

Students are encouraged to study together, and to discuss lecture topics with one another, but all other work should be completed independently.

Students are expected to adhere to the standards of academic honesty and integrity that are described in the Chengdu University of Technology's Academic Conduct Code. Any work suspected of violating the standards of the Academic Conduct Code will be reported to the Dean's Office. Penalties for violating the Academic Conduct Code may include dismissal from the program. All students have an individual responsibility to know and understand the provisions of the Academic Conduct Code.

Special Needs or Assistance:

Please contact the Administrative Office immediately if you have a learning disability, a medical issue, or any other type of problem that prevents professors from seeing you have learned the course material. Our goal is to help you learn, not to penalize you for issues which mask your learning.
