Course Description:

This course provides an introduction to art history from prehistoric to medieval times, emphasizing analyses of masterpieces in painting, sculpture, and architecture. It begins with the rise of Christianity and the challenges it posed to the Roman Empire, and then examines the Byzantine Empire and the lands of Islam. Medieval visual and material culture will be examined within the framework of socio-political developments, rapid urban growth, the flowering of monastic culture, and the rise of universities, and changes in devotional practices. This course also discusses monuments of Greece, Rome, and the Middle Ages, with a survey of Egyptian and Near Eastern art.

Course Materials:

1. Textbook:
2. Optional Texts (select one from the following two)
Gardner's Art through the Ages: The Western Perspective Vol. I,
Fred Kleiner, 16th Edition
Art History, Volume I,
Marilyn Stokstad and Michael Cothren, 6th Edition

Course Format and Requirements:

The course begins with prehistory and culminating in the late Middle Ages, around the year 1400. The goal is the understanding of the artistic contributions of the ancient and medieval civilizations. Students will learn: to identify the major works of art produced by the ancient and medieval civilizations; to discuss the art historical significance of these works; and to define the dominant artistic characteristics of each period.

Sessions include traditional PowerPoint lectures, hands-on workshops, and other group activities. Open, frank, and fair discussion will be encouraged in class.

Attendance:

Participation is mandatory for successful completion of this course. Attendance will be recorded at beginning of each class. 20% of final grade is determined by attendance and participation in class discussion. Participation counts for more of the final grade if it has been exceptionally good or less if exceedingly poor. Absences due to health can be excused only if the student brings a signed note from his or her health care provider.

Course Assignments:

Quizzes:

Five scheduled quizzes will take place during the semester. Total score of quiz count for 15% of the final grade. There will be no make-up quizzes.

Exams:

All exams are in the format of multiple choice and essay questions drawn from class notes and readings.

2 midterm exams

This course will have 2 in-class closed-book mid-term exams. Each exam will cover course materials taught until the day before the exam. Each exam is not cumulative. Each exam is worth 20% of the final grade.

Final exam

A three-hour, closed-book final exam will be taken at the end of the session. The final exam is cumulative, based on contents taught in the whole semester. The final exam is worth 25% of the final grade. Note that the final will not be taken during the normal class times. Exact time and location for final will be announced in the last week of sessions.
