Total Class Sessions: 25 Class Sessions Per Week: 5 Total Weeks: 5 Class Session Length (Minutes): 145 Credit Hours: 4	Instructor: Staff Classroom: TBA Office Hours: TBA Language: English

Course Description:

This course explores a selection of major developments in Chinese visual and material culture from ancient times to the present day. Works in multiple media including bronze, pottery, sculpture, calligraphy, paintings, ceramics and installations will be discussed. Topics include: landscape painting, pictorial and sculptural programs of Buddhist grottoes; art collected by the imperial court; Daoist, Buddhist, and Confucian religious practices; influence of foreign styles and ideas; and the role of Chinese artists in the contemporary world.

Course Materials:

1. In-class Handouts: most readings and viewing assignments are in-class handouts.
2. Required Texts:
The Arts of China, Michael Sullivan, 6th Edition
3. Optional Texts:
Chinese Art and Culture, Robert L Thorp and Richard Ellis Vinograd, 1st Edition

Course Format and Requirements:

Student Learning Outcomes:

Among the long Chinese history, each period had a distinctive characteristic in art forms, materials, styles and purposes in creating art. As completing the course, students will become familiar with Chinese art in its historical context, and develop their skills in recognizing and analyzing how art forms, materials, and styles changed according to the social change in Chinese history.

Attendance:

Your attendance is mandatory. You will be required to sign in at the beginning of each lecture and section.

More than three unexcused absences will result in an automatic reduction in your participation grade, for instance from A- to B+. Your active participation in the class is expected and constitutes part of your grade.

Course Assignments:*Term Paper:

The topic for the project must be selected from class materials we cover in class. Students also need to prepare a presentation of their paper and give the presentation in the last class. Both term paper and presentation slides are due before the last class.

Standards of a successful term paper must include:

- Present backgrounds and biographical materials on the artist, formal analysis and background materials on the artwork.
- Provide evidencing research.
- Show theoretical and contextual interpretation and analysis of the work
- The paper is written with nice formats, grammar and logics.

Exams:

*All the exams in this class will be based on the following format: 1) Short answer questions; 2) Multiple choices; 3) Short essay question.

3 midterm exams

Three non-cumulative in-class closed-book mid-term exams will be taken. Each exam is not cumulative. Each exam is worth 15% of the final grade.

Final exam

A closed-book final exam will be taken at the end of the session. The final exam is cumulative and worth 35% of the final grade.

Exact time and location for final will be announced in the last week of sessions.

Academic Integrity:

Students are encouraged to study together, and to discuss lecture topics with one another, but all other work should be completed independently.

Students are expected to adhere to the standards of academic honesty and integrity that are described in the Chengdu University of Technology's Academic Conduct Code. Any work suspected of violating the standards of the Academic Conduct Code will be reported to the Dean's Office. Penalties for violating the Academic Conduct Code may include dismissal from the program. All students have an individual responsibility to know and understand the provisions of the Academic Conduct Code.

Special Needs or Assistance:

Please contact the Administrative Office immediately if you have a learning disability, a medical issue, or any other type of problem that prevents professors from seeing you have learned the course material. Our goal is to help you learn, not to penalize you for issues which mask your learning.
