

HIST 1160: US History to 1877

2022 Winter Session
Total Class Sessions: 25 Class Sessions Per Week: 6 Total Weeks: 4 Class Session Length (Minutes): 145 Credit Hours: 4	Instructor: Staff Classroom: TBA Office Hours: TBA Language: English

Course Description:

This course explores American history through a thematic survey of colonial British North America and the early United States, from the first permanent English settlements of the early seventeenth century to the onset of the American Civil War. It studies how the United States, at first only a series of borderland outposts, became a sprawling republic for the purpose of investigating factors that brought Americans together and those that tore them apart, as they struggled passionately over racial, religious, and sectional values.

Course Materials:

1. In-class Handouts

There is no assigned textbook for this course. All assigned readings will be covered in the handouts given by the instructor.

2. Optional Texts:

Course Format and Requirements:

Attendance:

Students are expected to attend class on a regular basis. Attendance will be taken throughout the semester. While attendance is not directly calculated into the student's course grade, it will be a factor in determining participation grades. After a student's 4th absence, each unexcused absence will result in an automatic drop in grade. With each unexcused absence your final letter grade will be dropped ½ a grade – NO EXCEPTIONS (e.g.: A to A-).

Course Assignments:*Quizzes:

There will be 7 quizzes administered through the whole semester and the two lowest scores will be dropped. Quizzes will always be completed in the first ten minutes of class. The quizzes will consist of True/False and multiple-choice questions. There are no make-up quizzes for any reason

Exams:Midterm Exams

The midterm exams will be based on concepts covered in class. They will be in-class, close-book and non-cumulative. Chapter information will be given by the instructor. Exams will cover all class notes and handouts, information from the textbook, and any new vocabulary words introduced in lecture. Exams may be multiple choices, true/false, matching, short answer, identification, document analysis, and essay.

Final Exam

The final will be cumulative and close-book. Note that the final will not be taken during the normal class times. Exact time and location for final will be announced later. Students are responsible for class notes and class handouts, chapter readings, and any new vocabulary words introduced in lecture. The exam will have multiple choices, true/false, matching, short answer, and/or identification and essays. Final exams cannot be made up.
