

HIST 1180: US History since 1865

2022 Winter Session
Total Class Sessions: 25 Class Sessions Per Week: 6 Total Weeks: 4 Class Session Length (Minutes): 145 Credit Hours: 4	Instructor: Staff Classroom: TBA Office Hours: TBA Language: English

Course Description:

After the Civil War, Americans created a new urbanizing and industrializing landscape with a variety of issues such as migration flows, growing class conflicts, and racial divisions. This course explores: How did the US move from the Civil War to a world power? What have been the tensions between national ideals of "liberty for all" and the US market expansion? Topics covered include: Jim Crow South; immigration and urbanization; Populism and the Progressivism; consumerism; many wars; social movements after 1945; Reaganism and after.

Course Materials:

1. In-class Handouts

Contents of handouts will be mainly selected from the optional textbook below. Students are not required to buy textbooks. The in-class handouts are the only mandatory course materials.

2. Optional Texts:

The American Story: Since 1865, Vol. 2,

Robert A. Divine, T.H. Breen and others, 5th edition

Forging the American Character: Reading in United States History since 1865, Vol. 2,

Course Format and Requirements:

Please turn off all cell phones during lecture. No texting during class lectures. There is no talking out of turn or during lectures unless called upon to answer a question. If you have a question you will be given every opportunity to ask for the answer. You are encouraged to ask questions since extra credit may be given for thoughtful questions.

Attendance:

Students must attend the majority (90%) of classes. Participation means preparation. Attendance will be taken every day. Each student will have 3 (three) free absences, so no grade deduction will be made for the first three absences. Starting from the fourth absence, each unexcused absences will result in an automatic drop in grade. With each unexcused absence your final letter grade will be dropped ½ a grade – NO EXCEPTIONS (e.g.: A to A-).

Course Assignments:

Quizzes:

There will be 5 quizzes administered through the whole semester. Quizzes will always be completed in the first ten minutes of class. The quizzes will consist of True/False and multiple-choice questions. There are no make-up quizzes for any reason

Midterm Exam & Final Exam:

The three midterm exams will be in-class, close-book and non-cumulative. Exams will cover all class notes and handouts, information from the textbook, and contents introduced in lecture. Exams may be multiple choices, true/false, matching, short answer, identification, document analysis, and essay.

The final will be cumulative and close-book. Note that the final will not be taken during the normal class times. Exact time and location for final will be announced later. Formats and types of questions in the final exam will be same as in the midterm.
